

Notice in Relation to Electric Cooktops GCE7000 and BCE7001

Home Appliances has identified a potential issue with electric cooktops pictured below:

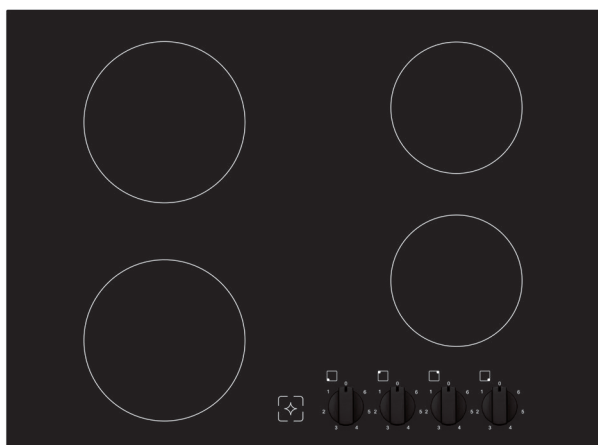

- Model GCE7000 : this cooktop may have no physical branding
- Model BCE7001: branded as Baumatic

As a preventative measure Home Appliances, the distributor of these products within Australia, has made the decision to proactively rectify this potential issue – that the appliance may switch off or on without the control knob being adjusted by the user.

If you think you may have one of the above models installed, please contact Home Appliances on 1800 444 357.
