THE LOFRA STORY

The Lofra heritage began in 1956 when two Italian families combined resources to create the first Lofra upright cooker. A strong focus on continuous improvement and a wealth of experience now sees Lofra as the number one selling upright cooker in Italy.

Whether you are a growing family or cooking for one, Lofra upright cookers have been designed to offer you years of high performance cooking. With features to suit your lifestyle, European styling and the flexibility of different options, you're sure to find the perfect Lofra upright cooker for your family.

Lofra also offers you a 2 year parts and labour warranty, providing complete peace of mind through our Customer Care Program supported by a team of dedicated and professional technicians Australia wide.

Lofra, Italy's Number One Upright Cooker.
